

CHIK Services Pty Ltd (CHIK) connects people and information technology around healthcare transformation agendas.

Working closely with governments, the ICT industry, health care providers and relevant associations, CHIK delivers a range of publication, event and meeting facilitation services that connect the upper echelon of industry, leading clinicians, and government decision makers in areas of mutual interest.

CHIK brings a mix of clinical, analytical, IT, marketing and management skills to the table that have resulted in its privileged position of trusted facilitator and match-maker within the Australian and global health ICT communities.

CHIK is ideally positioned to deliver Consortium Co-ordination services for the HealthTrack project including:

- Online discussion forums and collaborative tools;
- HealthTrack promotion;
- Analysis and advice on key components of the value chain;
- Consultation and research to bring project participants to the table; and
- Publishing and maintaining a capability directory for the project.
